Not despair of quick replies If "wants" like these you'd advertise; -A boy to work in tailor shop, Who seeks a chance to reach the top,

-A girl to wash and do housework, And never will her duties shirk.

—A man to keep a set of books.
Who's quick and next about their looks.

Suppose a "want" like one of these

YOU

Had and wished to fill it, please, Where would you think of putting it. To get the answer that would fit? In The Republic "Wants," of course,

WANT

You could fulfill. What would you try and try until Results had proved how wise the test You used to state your claims the best? Again the answer's mighty plain-Republic "ads" alone remain.

For don't you know, youthe and adults,
